

Call 603-354-5484 for screening & registration.

We're here for you, every day.
Urgent primary care visits are now available on our main campus, 365 days a year.

https://www.sentinelsource.com/news/local/keene-man-cleared-of-domestic-violence-trespassing-charges/article_bc6d2325-fbbc-57d5-84d1-1a5036e512c7.html

TOP STORY

Keene man cleared of domestic violence, trespassing charges

By PAUL CUNO-BOOTH Sentinel Staff
Feb 28, 2020

A local jury acquitted a Keene man of domestic-violence and trespassing charges after a trial last week.

Scott M. Tilton, 36, had faced three misdemeanor charges dating to July 2018. On Feb. 20, a Cheshire County Superior Court jury found him not guilty on all counts.

“I appreciate the jury’s attention and effort in reaching the verdict,” Richard Guerriero, Tilton’s lawyer, said by email. “Mr. Tilton is likewise appreciative and relieved that justice was served.”

Paul Cuno-Booth can be reached at 352-1234, extension 1409, or pbooth@keenesentinel.com. Follow him on Twitter

@PCunoBoothKS.