An experienced panel of criminal law practitioners will lead a lively discussion on attorney ethics in the age of social media. The program will focus on ethical issues that arise for both prosecutors and defense attorneys in criminal cases, as well as the ethical limits on lawyer advertising and marketing. Topics to include:

- Use of Social Media Such as Facebook or Twitter to Investigate, Contact, or Communicate with Witnesses
- Use of Social Media in Jury Selection
- Juror Use of Social Media and Juror Misconduct
- Attorney Representations in Endorsements and Recommendations on Sites Such as LinkedIn
- Attorney Representations on Their Own Web Sites
- Use of "The Cloud" For Storage and For Defense Team Collaboration (including an explanation of the recent ethics opinion on this issue)
- Ethical Constraints on the Use of Social Media Before and During Criminal Trials
