Can't make it to the live program?
Attend the facilitated video replay being offered on Thursday, January 15, 2009 at the NH Bar Center!

The NHBA's CLE Committee and Criminal Justice Section are offering this full day comprehensive update of DWI/ALS practice. This program includes speakers from the defense bar, the prosecution bar, the judiciary, the Department of Safety and the NH Crime Lab. This full day session is prepared by and presented for practitioners who handle DWI cases on a regular basis, but it would also serve as an excellent update for those who handle DWI cases infrequently.

Topics Include:

- Search and Seizure Litigation in DWI and Motor Vehicle Cases
- Cross-Examination of the Arresting Officer: 3 Techniques that Work, 5 that Don't!
- ALS Hearings - Update
- Drunk, Tired or Just Plain Clumsy? Different Perspectives on the Standardized Field Sobriety Tests
- Breath and Blood Test Litigation Update, including the Preliminary Breath Test
- Traps for the Unwary
  - Collateral Consequences of DWI Convictions for in-state and out-of-state license holders
  - Commercial Driver's Licenses
- plus a View from the Bench
